basics

These are items you already have in your closet and will go with everything. If you don't already have these pieces, you should get them first.

Skinny Jeans - Try these or these.

Great Pair of Boots (that go with everything) - This or this pair.

Cable Knit Sweater - Yes and yes.

Classic Coat - Classic and vintage.

A Neutral Bag - For this and that.

Watch - Like this one or this one.

Leggings - Try these.

Wide Leg Jeans - Why not these or these.

extras

Add these to your basics. These are trends for the season that will add pop to your wardrobe and keep you looking fresh.

Cat-eye Eyeliner - Try this.

Colored Pants - I like these and these.

Sweater Cape - Like this one or this one.

Wedge Booties - These or these.

Bright Lipstick - {For help, check out Sydney's Tips here.}

Fur Vest - Like this.

Cotton Parka - Get one with fur or without fur.

Tie Neck Blouse - So lovely!

holiday

There are at least three holidays in the next two months. They might not necessarily call for new clothes, but it's always fun to add a little fun in.

A Great Party Dress - Check out this and this.
Something that Sparkles - Shine and shine some more.
Snow Boots - Warm and toasty.
Cozy, Oversized Sweater - Cozy 1 and cozy 2.
A Hat (for caroling, looking at lights, or cutting down your tree!)- Try this or this.

"Make-up can only make you look pretty on the outside but it doesn't help if you are ugly on the inside.
Unless you eat the make-up."
